JULIA BAUMANN

Julia Baumann comes from Austria and trained as a specialist in the hotel and tourism sector. The focus of her training was on tourism, the hotel business, management & marketing.

She gained initial business experience in the travel agency of the Hochzillertaler Bergbahnen mountain lift company as a contact person for guests. She then moved to the large tourist region of Alpbachtal lake country and provided support for over seven years as Front Desk Manager to both domestic and international guests and groups. She increasingly took on the additional management of marketing events und represented the region at trade fairs and events.

In September 2017 she exchanged the mountains for a clear view on the Spree and moved to Berlin. She worked as Office Manager and Project Assistant in a consultancy company and since March 2019 she has been applying her organisational expertise and talent as a host to Below Tippmann & Compagnie.

She provides administrative support to the managing directors and the team in their recruitment and Newplacement projects and ensures through her friendly manner that both guests and colleagues feel as if they are on holiday.

Julia Baumann speaks German, Austrian, English and is learning Spanish.
